LONE STAR VARSITY SUPER TEAM

Offensive backfield

UTIL: Vincent Johnson, Sr., Monterey (shown left): Johnson finished with 1,665 yards and 22 touchdowns before adding six rushing touchdowns in two postseason games.

RB: Nathan Childers, Sr., Crosbyton (shown second from left): Aside from making 71 tackles as a linebacker, Childers ran for 2,117 yards and 32 touchdowns.

RB: Grant Sandercox, Sr., Frenship (shown second from right): Averaging more than 13 yards per carry, Sandercox finished with 1,239 yards and 23 touchdowns in the regular season. Sandercox saw a large amount of snaps on defense as well since he may project on that side of the ball collegiately.

QB: Nick Gerber, So., Levelland (shown right): Gerber combined for 42 touchdowns and 3,783 yards and led the Lobos to their first playoff win in 18 years.

Wide receivers/ends

TE: Evan McHugh, Sr., Cooper (shown left): A mainstay in the weekly Lone Star Varsity super teams, McHugh caught seven touchdowns and had 788 receiving yards. McHugh developed into one of the few tight ends in the area that was a legitimate pass-catching threat, and not just in the red zone.

WR: Trenton Jones, Sr., Levelland (shown right): A favorite target of Gerber's, the Class 4A first team selection had 20 total touchdowns and 1,326 receiving yards. Jones had a penchant for the big play and was competitive on most balls thrown his way, even in tight coverages.

WR: Brandon Sherlin, Sr., Coronado (not pictured): A bright spot on Coronado's offense, Sherlin reeled in 10 touchdown passes and caught 51 balls for 947 yards. He also ran for two scores and was a special teams threat.

Offensive line

OL: Nick Sanchez, Sr., Frenship (shown left): Sanchez played several different positions for the Tigers, which had 1,000 yard rushers each of the past two seasons.

OL: Gino Juarez, Sr., Brownfield (shown second from left): The Brownfield offense combined for over 5,000 total yards and Juarez graded 90 perfect and had 42 pancakes.

OL: Jalen McQueen, Sr., Estacado (center): In his third year as a starter, McQueen was a standout again for the Matadors, which consistently moved the ball using its pistol offense against every team they faced.

OL: Jared Parker, Sr., Littlefield (second from right): The Wildcats, which featured a dominant pair of running backs in Dontra Ewing and Da'Madrick Moore, rushed for 3,032 yards as a team.

OL: Chris Simmons, Sr., Levelland (shown right): Levelland's offense averaged 503 yards of offense per game and Simmons had 26 pancakes, 26 big blocks and six sacks allowed in 345 pass attempts.

Special teams

P: Zack Kirkpatrick, Sr., Idalou (shown left): While handling full-time quarterback and defensive end duties for the Wildcats, Kirkpatrick averaged more than 30 yards per kick with a long of 63 yards. This was Kirkpatrick's first season as Idalou's quarterback.

K: Conner Dean, Jr., Coronado (shown right): The Mustangs 3-7 season was highlighted by a 15-14 win at Permian against the Panthers that was sealed with a 54-yard field goal as time expired. Dean finished the year 28 of 32 on extra point attempts and was 9 of 11 on field goal attempts. Dean's kicks tallied 55 total points and he had 10 touchbacks in four district games since the Mustangs missed the playoffs.
